

I support the petition filed by the NCVEC regarding the elimination of the element 1 requirement. All existing Technician licensees should have the same operating privileges accorded the Tech Plus.
No other changes to license or class changes privileges are necessary.